

Charles Square Campus of CTU

Finding the CVUT (CTU) campus at Karlovo namesti 13 (Charles Square 13) is easy. Karlovo namesti is a large rectangular park. Travel by metro (line B) to station Karlovo namesti. There are two exits from this station. Take the exit closer to the city center, labelled Karlovo namesti. (The second exit leads to Palackeho namesti; when you appear less than 100 meters from Vltava river then you are on the wrong side).

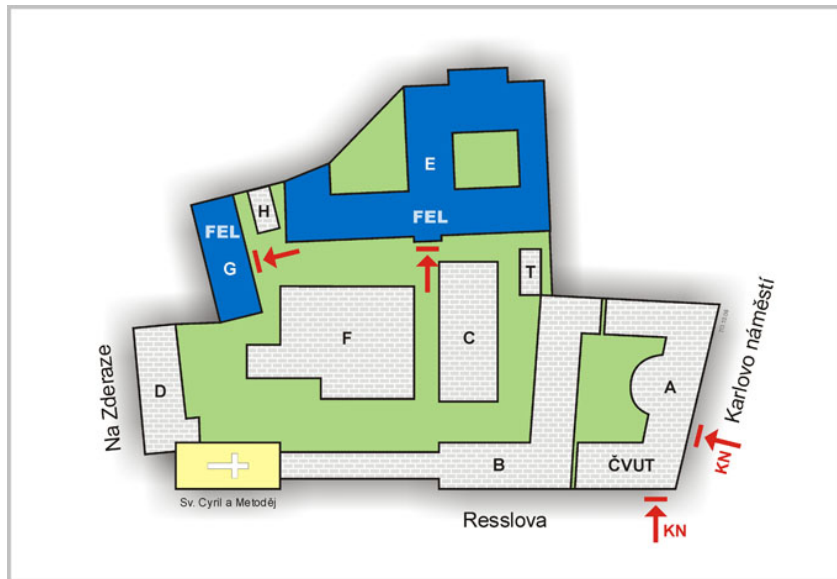

The entrance to the campus is in a yellowish Renaissance Revival building from 1860 on the corner of Karlovo namesti and Resslova street. You will appear in the underpass after leaving the metro area. One of the underpass exits leads to the corner of the CTU building. The direction is roughly diagonally left from metro exit. If there is a bakery shop on your right hand side in the underpass then it is the correct exit. Climb up the stairs and you will see the entrance to CTU directly in front of you.

Main entrance to the campus

How to get there:

- Campus Karlovo namesti (Charles Square, in English)
- Address: 121 35 Prague 2, Nove Mesto, Karlovo namesti 13
- The closest Metro station is Karlovo namesti, line B (yellow). Use the exit from the platform which is closer to the city center.

Buildings plans

Building with label ČVUT (building A) is historical building at Karlovo náměstí (the figure above).

Building with label FEL (building E) is building of Faculty of Electrical Engineering, Department of Computer Science (the figure below).

